STEVENSVILLE GIRL
TACKLES HEARING
PROBLEM AT UM

MISSOULA--

Pulling weeds for the State Foresters Nursery gives Jane Catherine Canton, of Stevensville, left, extra spending money.

Miss Canton, a junior at the University of Montana, Missoula, has a serious hearing loss which she has coped with by learning lip reading.

She became engrossed in the intricacies of speech communication and changed her major from psychology to speech pathology.

Miss Canton recently received a $700 Cobb Foundation scholarship for the 1969-70 academic year. The remainder of her educational expenses is paid by state vocational rehabilitation funds.
